

Jon Pritikin Introduction

As part of our effort to bring you the best programs and speakers today we have partnered with the National Character Education Foundation to bring in a very special speaker all the way from California Mr. Jon Pritikin.

Jon has spoken to and inspired over three million students around the world, as well as numerous professional sports teams.

On July 11, 2007 outside of London, England, Jon broke and set two Guinness World Records. The official record title that landed his picture in the 2009 Guinness Book of World Records is “The Tightest Circumference of Two Aluminum Frying Pans Rolled Together with His Bare Hands in Less than 30 seconds.”

Now let's give a big welcome to Jon Pritikin.
